

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Under the framework of the Inter-University Cooperation project between the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and Lao People's Democratic Republic, the University of Luxembourg and the National University of Laos are proud to open a call for applications for the third student exchange at the University of Luxembourg thanks to the Erasmus+ Programme funded by the European Union.

We are happy to offer a grant covering all expenses (travel, cost of living including) to study for one semester at the Faculty of Law, Economics and Finance (FDEF) of the University of Luxembourg, which will provide a friendly and dynamic international academic environment at the heart of the Europe.

We are looking for enthusiastic students preparing a law degree or willing to enter a law career/law degree in the future. Candidates will be selected on the basis of the excellency of their grades, interest for studying law, the quality of their application and their level of English (B2 recommended).

The selected student will be able to follow law courses in English such as Introduction to Law, Global Constitutional Law, Public International Law, Global Constitutional Law, Philosophy of Law, Public Administration with a comparative Law Perspective and Introduction to International Private Law.

Applications must be written in English and should encompass:

- A CV with full contact details;
- A motivation letter.

Deadline: 30th of March 2022

Selected candidates will be contacted for an interview online on 1st of April 2022.

Applications must be sent to Ms Sonenaly Nanthavong s.nanthavong@nuol.edu.la and Dr Perrine Simon perrine.simon@ext.uni.lu
